RE: MUR 7225
Jack Wu

Dear Mr. Wu:

On March 21, 2017, the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") found reason to believe you knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30102(b)(3) and (c), 30104(b), and 30114(b)(1) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 102.9, 102.15, and 104.3, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), and the Commission's regulations. At that time, the Commission commenced an investigation. On April 10, 2018, the Commission determined to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter.

If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, are limited to a maximum of 60 days, you should respond to this notification as soon as possible.

During conciliation, you may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the resolution of this matter. Because the Commission only enters into pre-probable cause conciliation in matters that it believes have a reasonable opportunity for settlement, we may proceed to the next step in the enforcement process if a mutually acceptable conciliation agreement cannot be reached within 60 days. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a), 11 C.F.R. Part 111

10047462116

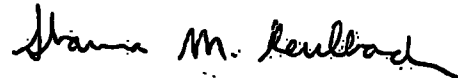

(Subpart A). Please note that once the Commission enters the next step in the enforcement process, it may decline to engage in further settlement discussions until after making a probable cause finding.

You may also request additional information gathered by the Commission in the course of its investigation in this matter. See Agency Procedure for Disclosure of Documents and Information in the Enforcement Process, 76 Fed. Reg. 34986 (June 15, 2011).

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes in the agreement, or if you wish to arrange a meeting in connection with a mutually satisfactory conciliation agreement, please contact me at (202) 694-1638.

Finally, if you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed Statement of Designation of Counsel form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

Sincerely,

Shanna M. Reulbach
Attorney
